New York, April 27.—In opening the annual convention of the Ambrican Newspaper Publishers association at the Waldorf-Astoria. T. R. Williams of the Pittsburgh Press, president, declared the opposition of the association to efforts to introduce the 44-hour week in newspaper, shops and to any reductions in advertising rates or subscription rates at present. He called on members to eliminate waste and to support the apprenticeship school movement in order to prevent a shartage of skilled ishor in newspaper plants.

Mr. Williams declared that while at one time "job rules" might have been valuable in preventing unemployment, there was no need for them now, since in all large cities there is at present ashortage of their lightshops fellow craftsman, and as

Sprightly Old Man Reveals the Secret

Mr. Eugene E. Collins, 54 years a resident of New Bedford, Mass., where he resides at 173 Arnold St., writes interesting letter.

Says his present excellent condition is due to Wincarnis.

Please send me to this address (St. Petersburgh, Fla.), a large bottle of Wincarnia. My home is in New Bed-ford, Mass. (173 Arnold St.) but I am down here for the winter.

I am 78 years old, and am much more vigorous and active than most men of my age. I know that my excellent condition is due to the fact that I take two or three doses of Wincarnis every day, because I never feit as well before I began taking it. I used to tire very quickly and suffer from wakefulness and had to bundle myself up whenever it was damp or drafty. But ever since I began taking Wincarnis I have had the energy and endurance of a middle-aged man. am down here for the winter. and endurance of a middle-aged man, sleep soundly and withstand the se-verest of weather. I have noticed that Wincarnis keeps my appetite keen and that it strengthens my nerves and heart. If my fingers tremble and my heart flutters or I feel symptoms of depression or weakness, a dose of Wincarnis gives me relief within
